Jennifer Roup gave her director's report. She reported that as of that date, there were 96 kids registered for summer reading. The cut-off date was June 15, 2026 and she felt that cutting off registration and not allowing registration the day of summer reading has helped with planning. Jennifer Roup listed the volunteers who were signed up to help and told the board about the activities and crafts that the kids would do during summer reading.

Jennifer Roup gave an update on the Books and Breezes Kite Festival and made a note that the date was changed from Saturday, August 1 to Sunday, August 2. Jennifer Roup gave an update on the food vendors. Lydia Hurst and Janet Griffin commented that it would be a nice addition to have a American 250 booth and they would initiate that project. The board then discussed possible sponsors and businesses to reach out.

Janet Griffin asked for a motion to enter into executive session. Lydia Hurst made a motion, Jayne Martin seconded.

Janet Griffin asked for a motion to exit out of executive session, Jayne Martin made a motion, Mark Staten seconded. Motion carried.
