PATHFINDER

EPISTEMOLOGY

(Philosophy - Graduate Program)

www.library.usc.edu.ph

November 2014

Introduction

A Pathfinder is a guide to the literature and resources in a particular subject area. It is a subject-oriented research guide designed to encourage researchers a self-directed use of the library.

The Humanities Section provides pathfinders basically to support students and faculty in their search for recorded literature and resources available at the USC Library System and accessible on the Net.

Should you have comments, questions and suggestions on this pathfinder, please contact the Humanities Section 2300.100 local 197 or email to humanities.uscblrc@gmail.com

Key Term: Epistemology

Scope Note: Epistemology is also called theory of knowledge. Enquiry into the nature and grounds of knowledge. 'What can we know, and how do we know it?' are questions central to philosophy, and knowledge forms the main topic of epistemology, along with its relation to other cognitive notions like Belief, understanding, reason, judge-ment, sensation, perception, intuition, guessing, learning and forgetting.
